ABOUT US

WE'RE MOXIE LUXE.
CHARMED, I'M SURE.

MOXIE Luxe is an international immersive events company based in Denver, Colorado, providing one-of-a-kind, extraordinary experiences.

Immersive events are a new type of underground event already big in cities like London, Brazil, New York City and Chicago. MOXIE founder Kara Duepre imagined creating such events while in college listening to DJ Tiesto, and living it up in Las Vegas. MOXIE was born from her desire to create an immersive show of lights, dancers, and music, choreographed beyond the usual, somewhat two-dimensional experience of a DJ spinning music and people dancing.

Kara also realized the club scene tends to cater to a younger demographic, with few good options – if any – for adults over 30 who want to enjoy an exciting night out.

In 2016, Kara took a leap of faith in herself and produced her first event, Wicked, a successful show she created and produced in just three months. Held in Cherry Creek, Wicked blended art, music and fashion with food and drink for an immersive evening that left her guests feeling euphoric and begging for more. It was through Wicked that Kara realized she was in her element, producing events that enchanted her guests throughout an entire evening - the kind of experiences Kara believes the Denver club and event scenes are not currently providing: “party-meets-performances” that break the boundaries between performer and audience, as participants engage with evocative elements of the show.

In 2016, Kara formed a dynamic partnership with Darrick Payne: Kara as the creative force and Darrick as the finance wizard, and MOXIE Luxe was born.
